

A "Rendezvous" is...(a meeting Place for trappers and traders in the mountains where they exchange their goods)

According to the Native American tribes, what was the "Great White Father"? (The President of the USA)

Why is oil on the state seal? (Oil is part of Wyoming's natural resources and our economy, it's another way our state makes money)

Did Lewis and Clark explore Wyoming? (No, they only came close by going through Montana)

Mountain Men, such as Jim Bridger, Jedediah Smith, Jim Bechwourth, and Edward Rose made their livings as guides and ___ in Wyoming. (trappers)

Gold was discovered in the Black Hills of Wyoming and South Dakota in _____. (1874)

Name the Wyoming State Fossil. (Triceratops)

Devils Tower was the country's first _____. (National Monument)

Pioneers crossed Wyoming on two of America's most famous trails, the _____ and Mormon Trails. (Oregon)

Name Wyoming's six Community Colleges. (Casper, Sheridan, Northwest, Central Wyoming, Eastern Wyoming and Western Wyoming Colleges)

Who guided Lewis and Clark on their expedition? (Sacajawea)

This woman was nicknamed "Sure Shot" because she was a trick shooter in Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show. (Annie Oakley)

Name the three (3) interstates that run through Wyoming. (I-90, I-80 and I-25)

The Transcontinental Railroad began in this Nebraska town. (Omaha)

The Union Pacific Railroad's first terminal in Wyoming was in this town. (Cheyenne)

Oil drilling first began in Wyoming in 1888 in the ___ area of Wyoming. (Casper)

Name the Wyoming State Reptile. (Horned Lizard)

Wyoming is home to the nation's first National Park, _____. (Yellowstone)

Name the three (3) branches of the Wyoming State Government. (Executive, Legislative, and Judicial)

Old Faithful is a ____, a spring that shoots a jet of hot water or steam into the air, located in Yellowstone National Park. (geyser)

The ___ Purchase was land purchased by President Thomas Jefferson from France for $15. (Louisiana)

Who was the great showman that ran Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show all over the world? (William F. Cody)

If you were a primitive man, what would you need to hunt? (Stones and spears, all the other things came later)

In ____, French Canadians Francois and Louis Verendrye explored Wyoming. (1743)

"Grandma" Eliza ___ became the first American woman to vote in a general election in 1870 when she cast her vote in Laramie, WY. (Swain)

___ Peak is Wyoming's highest point. It's 13,804 feet high! (Gannett)

What do the 5 banners on the State Seal say? ("Equal Rights", "Livestock", "Mines", "Grains", "Oil")

Red Canyon, or ___ - ___ - ___, was a favorite hideout for outlaws in Wyoming. (Hole-In-The-Wall)

Name Wyoming's only four-year University/College. (University of Wyoming - Go Pokes!)

___ Rock is the State Historic Landmark. This huge granite boulder is near Casper, where more than 5,000 emigrants carved their name along the Oregon Trail. (Independence)

Como Bluff ____ Graveyard, near Rock River, is the site of the world's first major discovery of dinosaur remains in 1877 and the now-closed fossil Cabin built entirely of dinosaur bones!
(Dinosaur)

The ____ Garden Petroglyphs near Moneta are a marvelous display of pre-historic drawings on sandstone cliffs. (Castle)

F.E. ____ Air Force Base near Cheyenne was the nation's first intercontinental ballistic missile (ICBM) base. (Warren)

The Grand ____ National Park, near Jackson, contains many peaks in a mountain range by the same name.
(Teton)

Name three of the crops and products that come from Wyoming. (beef, corn, wheat, sugar beets, potatoes, hay, sheep's wool)

How many different sea vessels belonging to the US Navy have borne the name "Wyoming"? (four, the first one was wooden and built in 1859)

During the Great Depression, President Franklin D. Roosevelt enacted a "New Deal" to help the economy, name one of the jobs people could get. (bridge builder, park builder, hospital builder, school builder, or park cleaner)

In ____, Nellie Tayloe Ross became the first woman governor in the United States. (1924)

The ____ County Public Library System, organized in 1886, was the first public library system in the nation.
(Laramie)

Wyoming is the ____ largest state in the United States. (9th, with approximately 97,819 square miles)

What would you like to have named in your honor?

What would you do to reduce crime?

What's your favorite hobby?

Where would you like to go on a cruise ship?

What fictitious person would you like to be?

What would be a great disguise?

How would you give away a million dollars?

What is your favorite holiday? And why?

What one event would you like to change in history?

Where would you go in a submarine?

Where would you go in a spaceship?

What would you like to invent?

What cartoon character would you like to be for a day?

In what time in history would you like to live for a year?

In what fairy tale would you like to live?

Would you like to know your future if you could?

What would you like to know about the future?

Tell us about your favorite toy...

Tell us what you think the stars see every night...

Tell us about a friend who helped you with a difficult situation...

Tell us about a time when you were honest...

What does the world have too many of?

Tell us about a time when you were brave...

Tell us about a time when you were hurt...

If you could create a perfect friend, what would he or she be like?

If you could make your room anything you wanted, what would it look like?

What makes you feel annoyed or frustrated?

What makes you feel scared?

Tell us your favorite joke.

What would you say during a TV interview?

What would you do if you were President?

If we had to move to a new town today, where would you hope we were moving to?

What's your favorite snack food?

What's your favorite room in our home? Why?

If you had to live with only three things for a week, what would those three things be? Why?

Tell us your favorite memory of winning...

Where is a beautiful place you've been or would like to visit?

If you had to leave your home right now and could bring only one thing, what would it be? Why?

Who is your favorite singer/band?

What is one thing you wish you could do better?

What is your favorite family memory?

What is your favorite subject/class in school?

What's the best way to handle disagreements?

Tell us the best things that have happened to you all week.

If the grades in school are A, B, C, D and F, what do you think happened to E?

What's the best way to make new friends?

What is something in the world you would like to have more of? Why?

Would you like to be famous? If yes, for what?

What are the best things to do at Christmas? Thanksgiving?

Tell us what make you unique or special...